

Brian Sharp – Brief Bio

Brian Sharp has over 25 years of experience shooting, directing, producing and production managing. His experience ranges from feature length films to 220 episodes of a daily TV series.

As an independent producer Brian has successfully produced two seasons of the KidsCBC series “Razzberry Jazzberry Jam”, a web series, N3XT NETWORK, with over 200 episodes as well as numerous short films, music videos and commercial spots.

Brian is equally skilled at fundraising, client management and getting the job done. His attention to detail and management style is exceptionally good at keeping a team on task and a project on budget, enjoying all aspects of the process of telling a story.

Brian has built successful financing scenarios, co-production deals and has filed and received almost every tax credit and private grant funding available in Canada. In the last 15 years Brian has raised over $10m in production funding for various media projects.