

Digital Distribution Forum 2018

FilmPEI will be hosting a day-long forum on the state of global digital distribution on Thursday, May 24, 2018 in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island

Among the presenters (via shared screen) will be Wendy Bernfeld Founder and Managing Director of Rights Stuff, an international consultancy providing content strategy and pragmatic licensing services, including content acquisition, distribution and development. <http://www.rights-stuff.com/>

Josée Plamondon, Expert consultant in digital content exploitation and author of Be Discovered—A Practical Guide to Making Your Content Discoverable will offer a practical in-depth approach to building your audience. Www.ipf.ca

Six local emerging producers will be pitching a variety of projects for a $15,000 production grant to develop a proof of concept to a jury made up of industry representatives from Bell Media, the Independent Production Fund and Bell Fund. Be part of the audience and vote for your favourite project.
